OUR BOYS AT SANTA FE.

Las Vegas returning from Santa Fe, this morning, report that the Las Vegas contingent of volunteer recruits now there, are in high spirits and anxious to get started for Tampa. E. C. A. Barber, who the Optic reported as having failed to pass the examination, wires friends here that he has been accepted. This is good news for all Las Vegas recruits, for Mr. Barber's services as a trained nurse will prove very valuable before the war is ended.

Fred Dunkel yesterday purchased a cub coyote from a Mexican and presented it to the recruits. It has been given the name of "Vegas" and is in the special charge of Jack Brennan, the Irish wit of the crowd. It will be taken to Tampa as the mascot.

Ben S. Sawyer, a Las Vegas boy, has the honor of being the handsomest man in the troop. Captain Cooper said so and he knows.

Orders have been received to have the men ready by the end of June and they are to be equipped in New Mexico. Whether this equipment means that they are to be furnished with horses and uniform here is not known.

Newspapers announce that the Territories of Oklahoma, Arizona, New Mexico and Indian Territory are to have a full regiment. If this is true it will give New Mexico about six more companies (infantry). In this event Las Vegas will very likely get one full company.

The report that the boys were left in Santa Fe without being provided with rations is true in part, but as soon as the Santa Fe people learned of the condition of things, relief came at once, directly through the efforts of Mrs. M. A. Otero. As it was no man missed a meal.

Alfred Ruiz, district attorney of Apache county, Arizona, has written to District Clerk Romero in the interest of his client desiring proof of death in a pension claim of a woman by the name of Paula Angela, who was convicted of the murder of Miguel Martin by stabbing him in the back with a dagger on the first day of February, 1891, and executed at this place on the 30th of July of the same year. The records show that the sheriff, Antonio Abad Herrera, was the executioner and that May Hays, a well known old time citizen of the west side was one of the juryman subpoenaed in the case, but excused.
